

Life moves pretty fast, if you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it.

A full schedule does not equal a full life

¹⁵ So be careful how you live. Don't live like fools, but like those who are wise. ¹⁶ Make the most of every opportunity in these evil days. ¹⁷ Don't act thoughtlessly, but understand what the Lord wants you to do. Ephesians 5:15-17

Prioritizing is not optional

"Don't worry about these things, saying, 'What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?' These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs.

Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously and he will give you everything you need." Matthew 6:31-33

One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, "Which command in God's Law is the most important?" Matthew 22:35-36

Jesus answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. These two commands are the pegs; everything else hangs from them." Matthew 22:37-40

1. Start and end every day with God.
2. View every person as a neighbor.

"When I was in my twenties, I wanted to be a great preacher. Now I am older, I want more than anything else to be a Christian. To live simply, to love generously, to speak truthfully, to serve faithfully, and leave everything else to God."

-Fred Craddock

When I look at my current self, I'm prioritizing being _____. But now, I want more than anything else to be a Christian. To live simply, to love generously, to speak truthfully, to serve faithfully, and leave everything else to God.
