For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. -John 3:16

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. -John 3:17

If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water. -John 4:10

She doesn't know what in the heck he is talking about.

I hate to break the news to you. You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock? -John 4:11-12

Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, 14 but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life. - John 4:13-14

Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water. -John 4:15

You have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. -John 4:18

I can see that you are a prophet. -John 4:20

The time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth. -John 4:23

The woman said, I know that Messiah is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us. -John 4:25

I am he. -John 4:26

We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world. -John 4:42

Once you label me, you negate me. -Søren Kierkegaard

You are not acceptable to God because of your attributes or your righteousness.

You are acceptable to God because of His attributes and righteousness.
